

BRENDA, ANIMAL CARETAKER

Now retired, Brenda continues to be the guardian angel of the place on Saturdays morning when the entire world is still sleeping.

For about 15 years she was the early bird who was keeping a sharp eye on the utmost cleanliness of the place, the devoted grandmother tending to the vital needs of each (exercise, clean bedding, food, etc...).