

Does my animal have fleas?

A very effective way to determine if your pet has fleas is to scratch your pet's coat over a white piece of paper. If your pet has fleas, there will be black debris, most often in the shape of a comma, that will fall on the paper. Spray the paper with water, and if the black spots turn red, it is flea excrement,

