

SOPHIE, ANIMAL HEALTH TECHNICIAN

Spread her wings into the canine and feline world by joining our team in March 2012.

Despite graduating from Vanier College in 2014 as an animal health technician, she is now working full time with us since January 2018.

Her joyous spirit and constant attention to the well-being of others is certainly an advantage for patients and clients.

Sophie has a passion for horses and kayaking.